

Food & Wine in Hawke's Bay

Here in New Zealand's Food and Wine Country, the food is bountiful and the wine is beautiful. The region's mild Mediterranean climate and prized terroir have given rise to a bounty of award-winning wineries, restaurants, breweries, distilleries and artisanal producers – all waiting to be savoured.

Arataki Honey

Discover the delicious world of honey with a food pairing experience at Hawke's Bay family-owned Arataki Honey - home to roughly 600 million bees. During this interactive session, a range of seasonal Hawke's Bay produce will be paired to five different varieties of Arataki honey. Discover the honey that pairs sublimely with figs and other fruits, with specialty cheeses, and with chocolate. During the summer season, groups can choose to add on the experience of being decked out on beekeeping attire and visit the on-site beehives and bees.

Church Road Winery

A pioneering Hawke's Bay winery, Church Road's winery experiences offer extraordinary behind-the-scenes access to discover the passion and innovation of the winemaking team. The new TOM Experience is the ultimate personal tribute to founder, Tom McDonald, who was a key innovator in the creation of the Hawke's Bay wine industry. Visitors experience an intimate wine flight tasting within the atmospheric surroundings of the underground museum. Reflecting the exceptional Hawke's Bay terroir, considered viticulture and masterful winemaking, these wines are only produced during outstanding vintages using superior parcels of fruit to craft wines that show exceptional character and quality. They'll be expertly guided through current and back vintage TOM wines as you explore the philosophy and character of our flagship range while enjoying selectively matched savoury bites.
